A Law Suit Follows.

A law suit will follow the deaths of two of the men who lost their lives in the Seventh Avenue Hotel Louisville, W. A. Buckner and C. F. Buckner. The former left an estate of thirty or forty thousand dollars. He had a will giving every thing to his wife except one farm, valued at six or eight thousand dollars. This he bequeathed to his nephew, C. F. Buckner, provided he outlived the elder Buckner. The question is, which of the two died first. Lawyers from Greensburg have been in Louisville investigating, and it is said that a suit will follow.

Owensby.

Mrs. S. B. Collin's health remains about the same.

Ray Gaines has moved into his new house at this place.

Uncle Ben Allen has had a "bungalow" built on the tract of land he bought off the Ballard or Albert Coffey farm. It will be occupied by uncle George and "aunt" Eb Allen, two old bachelors of Punccheon Camp bottom. With two or three more gasoline mills and a good daily newspaper this "burg" would be on a boom.

Mrs. J. K. P. Aaron is in poor health. She has heart trouble. Mr. Aaron is also feeble.

Mrs. Martitia Carter has moved to S. B. Collin's, where she will spend the winter.

On December 7, 1915, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. James McKinley and claimed for its own their loving daughter, Emerine, age 25 years. The deceased was a victim of fever and heart trouble, and was thought to be getting along nicely when death came. She leaves a father, mother, sisters and brothers besides numerous other friends. Funeral services were held at Liberty church by her pastor, Rev. E. Pennycuff, assisted by Rev. A. Beck, after which the remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground.

Mrs. M. L. Owens, who has been quite sick, is better at this writing.

Died, on Dec. 14th, Mrs. Mollie Price.

Mrs. D. G. Grider, who has been confined with fever and chills, has about recovered.

Tompie Goodman and wife, Rowena, passed here last en route from Esto, where they had been visiting the former's parents Rev. and Mrs. No Goodman.

Six months of the school at this place was out the 17th inst. Suppose there will be 7 months more. Prof. Lawrence will teach two more weeks then take his departure for Georgia, where he will be principal of a Graded school.

Prof. W. C. Lawrence, John Vaughan and Paul Grider; Misses Mazie Snow and Emma Grider all made a flying trip to Rowena recently, Misses Snow and Grider spending the night with Misses Lena and Opal Long, in Long's bottom.

Before this reaches its readers Santa Claus will have come and gone. We hope he will not overlook any one, for a few little toys at Christmas time will gladden the hearts of many a poor little boy and girls.

Mrs. Wm. Cook is quite sick at this writing with pneumonia fever.
